

To Our Clients and Friends:

3/23/2020

Although our offices are temporarily closed we are operating with business as usual. Our attorneys and staff are working remotely from home as required by the Governor. Utilizing the state of the art technology that we have invested in we are able to continue to provide whatever services you may need and we look forward to working together with you through these turbulent times.

You may contact us in the manner by phone or email as you have in the past. Our office phones have been linked to our cell phones so any call made to any of us, will be transferred to our cell phones immediately. In addition, any voice messages that you leave will be delivered to us by email. We are taking every step that we can to ensure that we are able to immediately serve your needs whether they are related to ongoing matters on which we are working together or new matters which require attention.

If you have questions or require any assistance regarding the COVID-19 crisis and how the rules, regulations and orders may affect you, your employees or your business, please do not hesitate to contact us. We are continually reviewing these ever changing issues as well as the governmental assistance and benefits which may be available to assist you through these difficult times. We will strive to keep you updated on these matters through our website and through our email newsletter to our clients and friends. If you wish to be included in those newsletters, please forward your email address to mjoyal@scolaro.com and you will be added to our list of recipients.

Please let us know how we can be of assistance on these and any matters.

First and foremost we hope you, your families and your loved ones are and remain safe and healthy and we look forward to working together to ensure that we are soon able to return to our normal lives and start the recovery process that is ahead of us all.
